

Public Interest
Disclosure
Commissioner

Speak out. Safely.

Excepted Organizations Under The Public Interest Disclosure Act

The following institutions have consulted with the Public Interest Disclosure Commissioner and have decided to be excepted from the requirement to appoint a designated officer and establish policies for receiving disclosures under The Public Interest Disclosure Act. Exceptions of this nature are described in Section 7 of the Act.

All disclosures from employees of the following institutions are to be made directly to the Public Interest Disclosure Commissioner's Office.

These institutions are still subject to the rest of the Act, including the requirement in Section 8 to widely communicate with their employees about the protections available under the Act.

- Law Reform Commission of Saskatchewan
- Multitype Library Board
- Saskatchewan Athletics Commission
- Saskatchewan Grain Car Corporation
- Saskatchewan Police Commission